

Week One

Name:

An Anglo-Saxon village

Explore the village of west mucking what can you find out? Try answering the questions below to see how much you know. (Remember to answer in full sentences using capital letters and full stops! )

What kinds of things were the people in the long house doing?

What did the villagers use for turning wood? Where in the village would you find this?

What kind of things did the people use the wooden objects for?

Where did the villagers get clay from and what did they use it for?

What did the villagers eat and where did their food come from? (hint: it wasn't the supermarket.)

What did they use the animals for?

Remember to save your work to your folder and print a hard copy.

Week Two

Name:

The Village of West Mucking

Find the women who are weaving to answer these questions. Remember to answer in full sentences using capital letters and full stops!

What is the thing in the room and what was it used for?

What two things do we know could be woven on the loom?

What did they have to do to the wool before it was used for woven?

What did the women have to do before spinning the washed wool?

What did the women use to spin the wool and what was it made from?

What are the 'warp' and 'weft' and can you draw a diagram to show how they would look on a loom?

Remember to save your work to your folder and print a hard copy.

Week Three

Name:

The Village of West Mucking

What does the village look like today? (hint: is it there at all and if not what is there instead.)